The home of contemporary cards & stationery for those who enjoy the silly.

Life can get way too serious most of the time so everything I design and make is designed to make you smile. Whether it be a print for your home that makes you smirk when you walk past it, a notebook that's probably a little too on the nose or a greeting card that's just plain rude. There's even loads to choose from this Christmas so you can find the perfect gift or card, especially for your pet lovers.

Everything is designed by me, Cat, the creative force and face behind Twin Pines Creative and wherever possible is made right here in the UK using sustainable sources.

Greeting Cards

Full colour folded cards, packaged in a biodegradable cello bag (if required) with a coloured envelope.
